Job Applicant Privacy Notice

How we use your information when you apply to work with Acer Trust

Acer Trust Activate Learning is committed to protecting your privacy. This privacy notice explains how we collect, use and share your personal information, and your rights in relation to the personal information we hold.

This privacy notice concerns people who apply to work or volunteer for Acer Trust (applicants).

Acer Trust is the controller of personal information, and is subject to the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

What information we hold about you

The categories of personal information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, address, telephone number, national insurance number, contact details your nationality and your country of birth)
- Characteristics, including special category data (such as whether you have a disability, your gender, your race or ethnicity, your religion or belief, your sexual orientation, the languages you speak);
- Skills and experience information (such as details you provided as part of your application to join us, your CV, details of your employment history, references provided by previous employers, results of selection tests and notes made at the selection activities you took part in);
- Criminal record data (such as convictions and sanctions which you declare or are revealed via a Disclosure and Barring Service check);
- Health information (such as details you provide as part of an occupational health screening process);
- Records of safeguarding checks which we have undertaken including the number of the Disclosure and Barring Service Certificate we received, a record that we confirmed your identity and your right to work in the UK including any visa which you may hold.

Why we collect and use your information

We use applicant information to:

- Process your application to work at Acer Trust;
- Enable assessment and improvement of the workforce;
- Inform the development of employment policy and strategy;
- Comply with the law regarding data sharing;

- Comply with our legal and contractual obligations.

The lawful basis for processing this information

Under data protection legislation, we are able to process information on certain legal grounds (bases). In the case of applicant information, we collect and use information under the following bases:

- The fulfilment of contract (which includes actions to move towards a contract);
- Legal obligation;
- Employment law;
- The legitimate activities of a charity or not-for-profit body.

Collecting this information

The majority of the information you provide to us is necessary for us to process your application and meet our obligations as an employer, and failure to supply such information may mean that we are unable to process your application.

On the other hand, some staff information is provided to us on a voluntary basis, for example information concerning your personal characteristics. We will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Under some circumstances, we may obtain information from third parties, such as your previous employer. We will normally seek your consent before obtaining such information.

Storing this information

We store staff information securely and in line with our Data Protection Policy and associated procedures. A copy of our Data Protection Policy and associated procedures can be obtained from the Data Protection Officer, by emailing nhills@maschool.org.uk.

Successful applicants

If your application is successful, we will hold your information in line with our Staff Privacy Notice, which is available on the Acer Trust website.

Unsuccessful applicants

If you are unsuccessful in your application to work for Acer Trust we will hold your data for a period of one year from the decision not to appoint you.

Who we share this information with

Your information will be available to the selected organisations which provide specific services to us as part of the recruitment and selection process:

- IT services providers
- MIS system providers
- Secure document disposal providers
- Occupational health providers
- DBS check providers

We do not share information about applicants with anyone unless it is necessary and in line with the lawful basis for processing listed above, or with the consent of the applicant concerned. Where data is routinely shared, a data processing agreement will be established to ensure the protection of applicant information.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to:

- Request access to the information we hold about them (Subject Access Request);
- Be informed of the identity of the controller, the reasons for processing their personal data and other relevant information necessary to ensure the fair and transparent processing of personal data;
- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress;
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing;
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means;
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and/or
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations.

Concerns

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

How to contact us

In order to raise a concern, make a request to exercise your data rights or to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact:
